Warranty Rules:

1. Warranty Period:

a. New products: All new products sold in the store come with a warranty period starting from the date of purchase. The specific warranty period for each product will be clearly displayed on the sales receipt or accompanying product documentation.

b. Used products: For used products or products that have been purchased from customers, the warranty period will be determined based on the condition and lifespan of the product.

2. Warranty Conditions:

a. The product must be used according to the manufacturer's instructions and guidelines. Any unauthorized repairs or interventions by the end user during the warranty period will void the warranty.

b. The product must be used under normal conditions and not be damaged by external factors such as impact, drops, water damage, natural disasters, or misuse.

c. The product must remain intact and not be altered or affected by external influences. Any signs of cracks, breakages, deformations, or similar issues will not be covered under warranty.

3. Warranty Benefits:

a. During the warranty period, if the product experiences a technical malfunction not caused by the user, the customer is entitled to request repair, component replacement, or product refund (depending on the store's policy).
